Lord, who sees my pain
As the wandering deer squalls
Mercy Lord
Take pity upon me, Lord, in your kindness
From the pit of my distress
In your word, O God
Jesus Christ, our hope
O Jesus, your cross reigns
My Redeemer lives
Oh! Take my soul
Our vessel is in danger
Nearer, My God to Thee
Lord, make us
You who are heavy laden with burdens
If hope has given you strength to walk
Be not afraid
Our Father, teach us to have joy
Christ calls us today
Let us not fear living in this world
Nothing will change
While we wait for the day

Song for ACAT 30th anniversary

At a time when all slumber
In the night of them that keep vigil
In Our darkness
From the pit of my distress
Let your daylight shine forth
The Dark
Christ the Messiah is risen
Lord we believe
Lord, you are risen from the dead
Your night will be turned into broad daylight
Stay on your guard
You who keeps silent
Find your presence in me
You are the Alpha and Omega
